

About us

SIETAR Switzerland is an association composed of multi-disciplinary intercultural experts from academia (faculty & students), public and private sector, trainers, coaches and consultants, as well as individuals with a specific interest in intercultural matters.

SIETAR Switzerland is a member of SIETAR Global Connect which regroups over 3000 members in more than 30 national and regional SIETAR associations spanning all continents. Our global outreach and membership numbers are in constant progression to reflect the growing interest for the intercultural field and its added value in today's world.

SIETAR Switzerland is a politically and religiously independent association.

Our Goals

- Provide a networking platform for intercultural practitioners to exchange best practices and expand on their professional competences,
- Serve as a link between research and practice with the assistance of our academic advisor, the Università della Svizzera Italiana's Master of Advanced Studies in Intercultural Communication (MIC), the only academic program in Intercultural Communication of its kind in Europe,
- Raise cultural awareness in Switzerland and contribute to helping solve societal problems by facilitating communication between stakeholders of different cultures.
