

Gabrielle Wanzenried, Dr. rer. pol., MSc Econ LSE is professor of finance at the School of Management and Engineering (HEIG-VD) in Yverdon of the University of Applied Sciences and Arts Western Switzerland since Sept 2019. She studied at the University of Bern, the London School of Economics and at the UC Berkeley. Before joining the HEIG-VD, she was professor of corporate finance at the Institute of Financial Services Institute of the Lucerne University of Applied Sciences and Art. Her research and teaching topics are Corporate Finance, Corporate Governance, Diversity and Real Estate. Over the years, she has led several research projects, provided consulting services to practice partners, and written numerous publications on these topics. In addition to her academic work, Gabrielle Wanzenried is co-founder and co-chair of a housing cooperative specializing in retirement homes (www.zuhauseambielensee.ch) and on the board of directors of the Thiébaud-Frey Foundation (www.laprairiebellmund.ch), a cultural institution that promotes talented young musicians living in Switzerland.