

Ina Rhöös grew up in Sweden where she did her University degree in Human Resources Management and Development. She is working since 8 years for IKEA where she started her career as a sales trainee before she took her next step as HR Generalist in one of the stores. Since five years she is working in the Swiss Service Office as country responsible for Equality, Diversity & Inclusion.