

In addition to acting as intercultural counsel and subject matter expert, the role of SIETAR Switzerland included:

- Developing an intercultural toolkit (with resources in English, French and German)
- Cultural awareness sessions in English, French and German
- Program development and delivery of a 1-day, face-to-face, peer-to-peer intercultural communication training for Mentors and Mentees
- Creating case studies based on intercultural critical incidents from past dyads.

To learn more, please read this article about the project (pp. 48-52).

Please find a summary of the project here: The UNES Perspectives Studies Project